

20 Morvan Street West Ryde NSW

4 2 1

Secluded from the street by enchanting hedging, this generous family home is immaculately presented and blends character and contemporary finishes in an idyllic natural setting for family living. It's set over a generous, yet easy to maintain parcel of land, and is an easy walk to schools, shops, café and parks. Bordering both Eastwood and Denistone its location is second to none and offers swift access to main arterial roads connecting you to Hornsby, Epping, Parramatta CBD and the Sydney CBD.

Graced with a sublime sense of light from its northern aspect, the versatile floor plan will easily accommodate a growing or established family. A vast selection of formal and informal entertaining areas and large, light-filled interiors are sure to create easy-care living from young to old.
